WIFE ANN-2404 Yr of Birth

HUSBAND - John HILTON-2403
Source IGI microfilm Royton Parish Records.
Occupation Weaver

WIFE - ANN-2404

CHILD 1 - James HILTON-2417
Parish register lists father's name as James, but believe it is John because of all other family data: steet address, mother's name, lack of any other mention of children of a James until next generation.

CHILD 2 - John HILTON-2399
IGI file, microfilm B.W.T. Norman Collection, Royton Parish Transcripts

CHILD 3 - William HILTON-2405
Occupation Weaver

CHILD 4 - Betty HILTON-2412
Parish register address: Chatherton Twins Probably second name is Father's occupation as a Twiner

CHILD 5 - Mary HILTON-2406

CHILD 6 - Thomas HILTON-2889

Source of name: IGI file m.f. # 215608. The B.W.T. Norman Record Collection:Parish Register Transcripts, Royton Parish Register christenings. (All members this family listed this file). Listed in parish record as child of Alice Hilton. Working theses is that his father died before he was born.No other children/christenings recorded to this family after his birth.Further source:HISTORY OF WALWORTH COUNTY, page 830 which mentions his name in a biographical sketch of John King. Other (inferential) information found in the letters his wife, Nellie, wrote to her daughter Hannah Hilton King & her son-in-law John King after they immigrated to the USA. Her two letters(dated 1836 & 1837) give many details of family members & often say "we....."but never mention him specifically, so presume he was dead by May 26, 1836.the date of the first letter.

HUSBAND John HILTON-813 Yr of Birth 1782
WIFE Ellen (Nelly) GREENWOOD-182 Yr of Birth 1780

HUSBAND - John HILTON-813

Doc: His daughter's death certificate, Walworth Co, Wis. Death Reg. Vol 3 #110799. IGI file m.f. # 215608, The B.W.T. Norman Record Collection; Parish Register Transcripts, Royton Parish Register christenings. (All members this family listed this file.) Further source: HISTORY OF WALWORTH COUNTY, pg 830, biographical sketch of John King, his son-in-law.

Listed in parish record as child of Alice Hilton. Working thesis is that his father died before he was born. No other children/christenings recorded to this family after his birth.

Other (inferential) relevant information is found in the letters his wife, Nelly, wrote to her daughter Hannah & her son-in-law John King after they immigrated to the USA. Her two letters (dated 1836 & 1837) give many details of family members & often refer to the family in England as "we...", but never mention him specifally,so presumably he was dead by May 26, 1836,the date of the first letter.

RESEARCH QUESTIONS:

1. Locate any corroborating information about him.

WIFE - Ellen (Nelly) GREENWOOD-182

Doc: IGI m.f. #215608; the B.W.T. Norman Record Collection; Parish Register Transcripts, Royton Parish Reg. Christenings.

Primary source of information about her is letters she wrote to her daughter, Hannah Hilton, from England to America. There are two letters,in which she gives details of events--births, deaths, etc., in both the Hilton & the King families. [The originals of the letters are in the possession of Carol King; RKF has photocopies of them.] The last letter we have is postmarked Manchester, England, date July 16, 1837, therefore we know she died after that date.

Address on her letter of May 28,1836, is Haygate. According to one local historian, the name Haygate, or Haggate, is Celtic in origin, possibly meaning "gateway to a holy place". (See file--THE STORY OF ROYTON). Haggate street to this date is a two block long street in Royton, just off Middleton Road, and a short walk from the old parish cathedral and market square. The street sits rather high on a hill and affords an excellent view of lovely, sweeping country side in one direction; the far-off mills still standing in Oldham in the opposite direction. It is near Mill Lane & the Royton cotton mills that formerly stood there, where so many family members earned their living.(The same source sited above states "...as far as records show the first cotton mill in the world was built here in Royton in 1764.)

Her given name was Ellen, and she is recorded by that name in the births of her first 3 children; after that as "Nelly". [Each succeeding King generation, to the present (Ruth Ellen King Freymann) has had an Ellen, often called Nell or Nellie.]

The most intriguing fact about her letters is that they are written in beautiful, flowing script, and some of her vocabulary and phrasing is that of an educated person. (See family letter file) An interesting contrast to her letter is the handwriting contemporary to her letter of the several parish priests who recorded birth & death data in the parish register--most of whom wrote in barely legible scrawls. Yet there is no reason to believe that Nelly, daughter and wife of cotton mill workers (probably one herself) ever had any formal education. It is equally hard to imagine anyone in such poor circumstances in England at that time having access to any means of learning to read or write.

RESEARCH QUESTIONS:

1. Information found in IGI file re birthdate & father's name needs to be verified. This is only Ellen Greenwood listed (of a great many such name who could be the right one.) What other source might be available to check authenticity?

2. Need date/place of death & burial

3. Determine any clues to her letters & her handwriting.

CHILD 1 - William HILTON-807

Source IGI file as with parents

Source also letters from Nelly Greenwood Hilton, in Haggate,England, in 1836 & 1837, to John & Hannah Hilton King, in Rome, New York. She gives information about family members.

CHILD 2 - Sarah HILTON-2394

CHILD 3 - John HILTON-2395

Obviously died before second child named John (#1122) born

CHILD 4 - Thomas HILTON-2396

Source of birth, christening & family member statistics : IGI file, microfilm # 215608, information gathered by RKF during extensive review of parish records of Royton Parish Church. Family assigned to him to some extent presumptive based on extensive parish records which list parents as Thomas & Alice Hilton. (There are no other families in the parish records by this name.) Also family letters confirn names of several of the children.

Burial record found by RKF, Nov. 1990,in micro-film of parish records in Royton

CHILD 5 - John HILTON-1122

Mentioned by his mother, Nelly Hilton, in letters to John & Hannah King, last one dated July 16, 1837(see Hilton archives). She states, on May 28, 1836," John has left his weaving and has begun to be [apprenticed to ?]William Travis Carter. [Or is it carder?, as in "William Travis' carder?] "She does not mention him in her letter of July 16, 1837.

CHILD 6 - Alice HILTON-2397

Parish Register lists home address as "Stottfield", but all others in family

HUSBAND John HILTON-813 Yr of Birth 1782
WIFE Ellen (Nelly) GREENWOOD-182 Yr of Birth 1780

both before & after her birth are listed as "Royley", so for now assume same for her. (Record specific enough so no doubt she is child of this family.)

CHILD 7 - Hannah HILTON-55

Source: Parish Register, IGI file microfilm # 215608; her tombstone; local history/obituaries; also ALPK in her journal says that Hannah's birthday is July 7, and that, in 1873, the year of the journal entry, she is "probably 65"

Much family information comes from two existing letters written to Hannah by her mother, Nelly Greenwood Hilton(RIN#182), as well as six letters--4 from Hannah, 2 from her husband John King--written to their children & grandchildren after they had moved from Wisconsin to Minnesota. (Original letters are in the possession of Carole King; see Hilton/King file for zerox copies) Hannah's letters present a marked contrast with those written by her mother, as they are much more poorly spelled & grammatically limited, but they are warm and maternal, filled with concern and advice for health and housekeeping problems.

Two letters (see file) sent by her sister Ellen three years after her death document the continued correspondence between Hannah's family in England & in America. It is also interesting to note that Ellen's letters were both written by a surrogate, which makes their mother's handwriting all the more mysterious.

Death/Burial: Walworth Co. Death Reg. Vol 3 #110799. Age: 79 yr, 11 mo. Cause: Erisipelas. Occupation: Housekeeper. Father: John Hilton. Mother: Nelly Hilton. Place of birth: Lancashire, England

She is buried next to her husband in the peaceful hilltop cemetery where together they helped create a new community.

RESEARCH QUESTIONS:

1. Need to authenticate birth & other records found in Royton Parish recordsfor herself, her parents & her siblings. A thorough search turned up only the possibilities listed, & they fit the names of family members in Nelly's letters. When/ how does one decide that what you see is enough to verify?

2. Find wedding date/location

CHILD 8 - Betty HILTON-808

Mentioned in letters written in 1836 & 1837, from Nelly Greenwood Hilton in Haygate, England, to her daughter & son-in-law, Hannah & John King. IOn May 28, 1836, she says " Your sister Betty.....is in woeful condition..(their) ailments are in their legs". On July 16, 1837, she writes " This winter death has been among our families it has taken Betty's daughter Hannah". (She later states the cause was measles.

Working hypothesis, based on analysis of Royton parish records: Hannah was the child born out of wedlock to Betty & Thomas Butler,of HayGate, occupation Sal..not sure what that was. Hannah was christened at Royton Parish Church on 3 Jan 1836. Nelly says, in a postcript at the bottom of her letter, that "Betty and Ann each have another child both boys." No mention of a marriage and no other babies born to an unmarried Betty Hilton in the records.

WIFE Ellen (Nelly) GREENWOOD-182 Yr of Birth 1780

CHILD 9 - Ann HILTON-1121

Mentioned by her mother,Nelly Hilton, in two letters to John & Hannah King the last one dated July 16,1837. Nelly writes, on May 28, 1836,"Ann has given up her work on account of her old complaint". In 1837, she writes of the death during the winter from measles of "Ann's son Henry", as well as several other family children. At the end of her letter she writes that "Betty and Ann each have another child both boys". There is no clue about a husband, but I believe she is married as there is no christening record of babies born during the possible time span for an unmarried Ann Hilton.

CHILD 10 - Ellen HILTON-2398

Doc: Parish Records, Royton

Two letters (copies in file) from her to John King, written in July & November 1889 giving death notices of her husband,______Hanson & her sister Mary Hilton, doc. her as Hannah Hilton King's sister, and also that her death occurred after those dates. [The original letters have been donated to the Minnesota Historical Society, transcripts & xeroxes are in King-Porter Family Letters.]

CHILD 11 - Mary HILTON-5160

Doc: Letter form her sister Ellen to John King (see file for copy), with funeral card listing age, date & place of death & burial

HUSBAND	John HILTON-1122	Yr of Birth 1803
WIFE	CHARLOTTE-2421	Yr of Birth

HUSBAND - John HILTON-1122

Mentioned by his mother, Nelly Hilton, in letters to John & Hannah King, last one dated July 16, 1837(see Hilton archives). She states, on May 28, 1836," John has left his weaving and has begun to be [apprenticed to ?]William Travis Carter. [Or is it carder?, as in "William Travis' carder?] "She does not mention him in her letter of July 16, 1837.

WIFE - CHARLOTTE-2421

CHILD 1 - Rachael HILTON-2422

Parish records give both her birthdate & christening date, a practice only rarely followed, always when child has been christened several years after birth
